Description:

Nice example of De Wit's rare early map of Africa, with decorative panels showing birdseye views of Alcair, Alexandria, Alger, Tunis, Tanger and Ceuta across the top and 8 costumed figures along the sides. Two large ornate cartouches. Marvelous detail in the interior of the continent. A nice dark image in attractive full color. Some minor expert restorations at the lower centerfold and a repaired tear about the lower cartouche. A striking example. State 3 of the map, without the date and with the number 3 in the upper right corner. Tooley, Collectors' Guide to Maps of Africa, p.28-29. Map # 93.
