Description:

Fine example of this highly detailed map of the American Southwest, published during the period of rapid expansion of the region in the first decade of the 20th Century.

There are a number of regions experiencing significant mining booms during this time period, as well as a very rapid expansion of the Railroads.

The map is quite rare on the market. We were able to locate only the examples at the Huntington Library and Colorado Historical Society.

Detailed Condition:

Wall map, with original rods and linen backing.
