Description:

Rare pair of maps showing Norway and Denmark in one sheet and Denmark and Schleswig-Holstein in the second, from the second edition of De Jode's rare Speculum Orbis Terrae.

While at first glance, the map appears somewhat similar to Ortelius's map of Denmark, the maps are very different. Most notably, De Jode's map shows a much larger portion of Norway.

The present example is fine uncolored wide-margin copy, which has been rubricated on the front and back.
