Description:

Fine early portrait of Sir Francis Drake, after a painting by Sir Godfrey Kneller.

Sir Francis Drake (1540-1596) was England's most famous 16th Century mariner. As the first Englishman to circumnavigate the globe, Drake was responsible for a wide range of discoveries and English territorial claims, including its claim to the Island of California.

His piracy during the circumnavigation of the globe resulted in a number of profitable raids on Spanish ships and ports. Drake's increasingly frequent and serious attacks during the 1580s were an important
