Description:

Striking large format map of America, published in Leiden by Pierre Vander Aa.

The map features California as an Island and a projection of the Mississippi pushed far to the west, with the mouth of the River near the Rio Grande.

The map also includes a number of annotations. The projection of South America is also unusually wide for the period. The cartouche features a wonderful Indian Village scene and is truly one of the most decorative and well engraved illustrations of the time.

Detailed Condition:

Minor fold split at top centerfold
