Rare Johannes Orlandi edition of Claudio Duchetti's map of the area around Rome.

Duchetti's map of the area around Rome is based upon the map of Euphrosynus Ulpus. Duchetti's first edition was issued in 1564, with later edition issued by Henrik Van Schoel (1601) and Johannes Orlandi (1602).

All editions of the map are extremely rare.

Euphrosynus Ulpus is probably best known for his copper globe of 1542, which shows Giovanni de Verrazano's explorations in the New York area.
