Description:

Presentation copy of this fine late 19th Century facsimile of the "Governor Bradford map" of New York City, 1728.

The map based on a survey by James Lyne in 1728, showing main roads and streets.

The dedication reads:

To his excellency John Montgomerie, Esq. Capt. Genl. & Gov. in Chief of his Majestis provinces of New York New Jersey this plan of the city of New York is humbly dedic'd by Your Excellancy's obet & most humble servt, Wm. Bradford."

The pencil note at the bottom shows that the map was presented by the publisher to the Maine Historical Society in 1903.

Detailed Condition:

Pencil notes in the margins, including the stamp of the Maine Historical Society.
