Description:

Fine example of this scarce chart of the bay and town of Jacmel, on the south coast of Haiti's southwestern peninsula, with multiple depth soundings and the topography of the surrounding countryside rendered in great detail.

The map appeared in the rare first edition of Recueil de vues des lieux principaux de la colonie française de Saint-Domingue, the atlas published as a companion to the six-volume Loix et constitutions des colonies françaises de l'Amérique sous le Vent by Moreau de Saint-Méry, a key chronicler of life on the French colony of Saint Domingue, today's Haiti, on the eve of the Haitian Revolution.
