Description:

A rare large format map and chart of Americas, showing colonial possessions and the most recent explorations. The new United States is shown with its boundary at the Mississippi River. The Russian Discoveries along the NW Coast of America are shown, as are the updates provided by Cook and the tracts of Cook's various voyages in the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans. A scarce map, trimmed to the neatline and with a minor dampstain at the upper part of the image. But for the defects, a $750.00 map. The only example we have ever seen. Most likely separately issued.
