Description:

Finely detailed separately issued map of Boston and Environs, first published by Walker in the 1890s and regularly revised and updated.

The map is oriented with Northwest at the top and extends from Cambridge and Charleston to East Boston and South Boston.

Shows the harbor, streets, bridges, surface rail lines, subway lines, elevated trains, etc. along with ferry routes, waterfront docs, terminals, etc. A number of train and subway stations are also noted.

A nice example of this detailed map.

Detailed Condition:

Folding map, in original covers with printed title.
