Rare separately issued example of the first edition of this detailed chart of the Lower Part of the Cape Fear River, from the Wilmington area to just south of the Ruins of Old Brunswick, first issued in 1856.

Includes a large inset of the area around Wilmington and the river to the north.

The map was first issued in a thin paper copy, which was included in the Coast Survey's Annual Report to the Superintendent. The present example is Electrotpe Copy #2, printed on thick paper, which was separately issued only and was re-issued periodically, as late as 1888, published by the Coast & Geodetic Survey. However, all editions of the Electrotpe #2 copy are very rare.
