Description:

Rare early railroad map of the Indian Territory, from Cram's 1879 Standard American Railroad Atlas.

This example, dated 1879, is one of the earliest obtainable large format separately issued maps of Indian Territory to appear in a Commercial Atlas of this era and the largest. Includes topographical detail, railroads, cities, Indian reservations, forts, Post Offices, and a host of other details.

George Cram would become one of the most prolific atlas publishers of the last 19th and early 20th Centuries. However, his earliest maps, issued in the late 1860s, were marvelous separately issued railroad maps. His success led to the publication of two editions of his now impossibly rare Standard American Atlas in 1875 and 1879, which included a number of Cram's rare separately issued railroad maps. We have seen only one complete example of these two atlases on the market in the past 12 years. Includes excellent detail showing counties, township surveys, towns, railroad lines, and other early details.
