Description:

Highly detailed regional map of the northern part of Western Australia, extending from Mt. Cockburn and Cambridge Gulf in the Northeast to the area near Roebuck Bay. Dozens of early place names. Several minor wormholes, but still an excellent example of this early and highly detailed regional map. From Vandermaelen's remarkable 6 volume atlas, which if combined as globe gores forms an immense globe. Vandermaelen accomplished the first atlas mapping of the world on a uniform scale.
