Description:

Fine example of John Arrowsmith's map of Egypt, from his London Atlas.

Includes significant details along the Nile, caravan and trade routes, etc. Interesting notes include "Desert of Moving Sands," "Djewaby Arabs" and "Camel Breeders for the Esneh Market."

Arrowsmith's map is one of the best commercial atlas maps of the period and benefits from many contemporary sources. The map shows South America at the tail end of the time period when it was reshaped by decades of revolution and political upheaval.
