Vincenzo Maria Coronelli, a Venetian scholar and Minorite Friar, was one of the most celebrated map and globe makers of his era. Coronelli produced more than one hundred terrestrial and celestial globes, several hundred maps, and a wealth of cartographic publications. In 1683 he completed the Marly Globes for Louis XIV, the largest and most magnificent globes ever made. In 1684 he founded the Accademia Cosmografica degli Argonauti, the first geographical society, and was appointed Cosmographer of the Republic of Venice.
