Description:

Rare old color example of Gerard Van Keulen's map of the Caspian Sea, with an extra sheet including 8 harbor plans.

The map includes a fine large view of Astrakhan (Russia) and smaller views of Samael and Berg Derment (Dagistan).

The chart principally comprises a detailed chart of the Caspian Sea, oriented to the east, showing parts of the various countries bordering the sea, including Astrakhan, Samarkand, Tartary, Georgia and Persia.

This example, with the extra panels, is extremely rare, especially in such fine old color.

Detailed Condition:

Old Color. Some abrasions and misfolding and toning.
