Description:

First edition of this scarce large format map of North Carolina, colored by counties, published by GW & CB Colton in New York, on a scale of 6 inches = 50 miles.

Colton's map of North Carolina is one of the most detailed and largest commercial published maps of North Carolina during the period following the Civil War.

Shows counties, cities and towns, principal roads, plank roads, railroads, and natural features plus points of economic interest, such as mines, fisheries, stores, and mills.

One of the largest and most detailed maps of North Carolina published in the middle of the 19th Century.

Detailed Condition:

Two sheets, joined. Minor discoloration at folds and 1 printer's crease.
