Description:

Rare example of this finely excuted map of the Territory of Hawaii by H.E. Newton, published in 1919.

Fascinating map of the islands, with a large inset map illustrating Hawaii's location in the center of the Pacific Ocean, with distances to major ports and destinations.

Smaller insets illustrate

- the topography of the 3 major Volcanos on the islands
- the location of the Hawaiian Island Bird Reservation to the west of the main group of Islands.

The map is highly detailed and reflects the updated cartographic details from the Hawaiian Island Territorial Surveys conducted at the beginning of the Century.

Detailed Condition:

Printed on thin paper. Never folded.
