Description:

Nice example of the first edition of Bradford's map of the District of Columbia, one of the earliest obtainable maps to show the District.

The map shows the town plans for Washington, Georgetown and Alexandria, along with early roads and the Chesapeake & Ohio Canal and the Baltimore & Washington Railroad.

A key locates 10 points of interest within the District.

The 1830s were a fascinating transitional period in the US and in domestic cartographic publishing. Bradford's work is without question an important part of this era.
