Description:

Rare separately issued chart of St. Barts, Anguila and St. Martin, published by the Direccion Hidrografica in Madrid.

The chart is one of the few charts or maps to focus on these islands and the only Spanish chart published in the 18th Century to treat this region in detail.

The chart shows significant topographical details, soundings, smaller outer islands, shoals and place names.

OCLC lists 2 examples of the 1811 edition.
