Description:

Scarce chart of the Island of Kronstat, the primary defensive position for the Russian Navy in defense of Russia's Czarist Capital of St. Petersburg.

Published on the eve of the Crimean war in anticipation of the conflict with Russia, the Allied Navy did in fact blockade the region, but was unable to penetrate the Russian defenses.

The map is exceptionally detailed, and includes Peterhof and the Russian Coastline of south Kronstat.

Detailed Condition:

Dissected and laid on linen.
