Description:

Fine Covens & Mortier edition of Jaillot's large decorative map of Sicily, showing the eruption of Mount Aetna both on the map and below the decorative title cartouche.

The island is divided into 3 provinces, with significant cartographic and geographic information included.

The present example is a fine dark impression of the map.

The title cartouche includes two sea gods holding the cartouche aloft, with a coat of arms and other allegorical figures riding atop the image. A fine decorative example with wide clean margins and 2 large cartouches.
