Description:

Decorative regional map, extending from the Islands of Ischia, Ponza & S. Marie to Napoli and Terracina on the coastline and extending inland to Abruzzi, etc. Includes the towns of Capua, Macerata and Cimarola. Large decorative title cartouche with 2 smaller cartouches. Evidence of an aging plate, which was probably used by Blaeu as part of his Grand Atlas, with minor breaks in the plate evident near the lower margins. The map itself is in fine condition with wide margins. Several sailing ships and sea monsters in the water. Fascinating example of the printed art and the duration of use of the copperplates which produced these maps.
