Description:

Rare outline color edition of Colton's marvelous early map of California, immediately prior to the Civil War, with a large San Francisco inset. Still only a few Southern California Counties, including the no longer existent Buena Vista County, along w/ San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, San Bernardino, LA and San Diego Counties. Shows roads, proposed railroads, existing railroads, rivrs, moutnains, lakes, early explorers routes detailed treatment of gold country, etc. An odd mention of Carisso Creek in San Diego County, later to become the sight of the famous Railway Tressel. Decorative borders. This outline color edition is extremely rare. We have never encountered a complete copy of the atlas in outline color and this is only the 3rd time we have seen a loose map from the atlas. Offered with an additional page of text from the atlas.
