Description:

18th Century British Map of the Northern United States

A nice example of Laurie & Whittle's map of Canada and the Northeastern United States, extending from Hudson and James Bays to Newfoundland and the Grand Bank, and to Delaware Bay, the Upper Chesapeake, Pennsylvania and Lake Ontario.

Interesting annotations in New York, immediately west of the early reference to the State of Vermont. Interesting US State boundaries and annotations. Rich with Indian details. The cartouche includes a Beaver at the top.

The note below the cartouche explains the control of various strategic fishing islands off the coast of Newfoundland, etc.

Detailed Condition:

Minor offsetting. Short fold split at lower fold, just touching printed image.
