Description:

Fine 2-Sheet Map of Long Island by GW & CB Colton

One of the largest and most dramatic maps of Long Island to appear in the 19th Century.

In the lower right is a large inset map of Brooklyn and lower Manhattan.

Colton's map covers the region from Newark, Staten Island, and New York City eastward as far as Montauk and Fisher Island. Includes the entirety of Long Island, the Long Island Sound, Suffolk and Nassau counties, the Hamptons, and the Connecticut Coast.

A large inset in the lower right quadrant details New York City, particularly lower Manhattan, Brooklyn, Long Island City, as well as parts of Queens and Jersey City.

Detailed Condition:

2 sheets, unjoined, with original covers. Minor fold discoloration.
