Description:

Striking map of the continent of South America, during the period of liberation and revolution on the Continent.

The map locates a number of newly independent regions, including Colombia, Peru, Bolivia, Chile, Patagonia and the United Provinces of La Plata (Argentina). French Guyana, Dutch Guyana and British Guyana also appear, along with Brazil. The total population of the continent is shown at 9,670,000 in the table to the left of Patagonia.

Nice early detail.

Detailed Condition:

Minor intersection loss and some staining. Could definitely be cleaned and improved.
