Description:

Rare example of John Stockdale's map of South Carolina, from the London edition of Morse's Geography.

One of the first English maps of South Carolina published following the conclusion of the American Revolution and one of only a few maps to show the state of South Carolina published prior to 1800.

The map is divided by counties and locates towns, roads, rivers, mountains, court houses, etc.

An essential map for South Carolina collectors.
