Description:

Rare separately issued map of Poland, published by Paolo Petrini of Naples.

Petrini's maps are typically based upon the work of French Royal mapmaker Nicolas Sanson, although the present example gives credit to Nicolas's son, Guillaume Sanson.

The cartouche has an unfinished quality to it and this may be an early state of the map, although we have only located only this state of the map in on-line illustrations.

A nice example of this rare map.

Detailed Condition:

The map has been cleaned and flattened at some point in time, with some minor restoration near lower centerfold.
