and unsurveyed sections, and township and range designations.

William P. Flynn

Flynn was a well-known historical figure whose surveying and mapping skills are part of Montana history. Flynn was from Adair, Iowa, At age 23, he started classes on Sep 3, 1888 and received an A.B. Degree in 1891.

After graduation, W. P. Flynn became a military school teacher at Fort Keogh from 1895-1896 in the 2nd Infantry, Company F. He enlisted at the age of 29 from Omaha NE on May 29, 1895 and was discharged from the US Army at Fort Keogh on Sep 19 1896.

A civil engineer, he was a member of the first graduating class of Creighton University and is credited with the first maps for both Custer (which included most of the eastern half of Montana in those days) and Teton Counties.

Rarity

The map is apparently quite rare. OCLC lists examples at Yale, the Newberry Library and Montana Historical Society. We were unable to locate any auction or dealer catalog entries for the map.
