The map is remarkably detailed, identifying 15 operating lines (color coded) and providing remarkable detail throughout.

These maps were apparently issued periodically. We note editions of 1915, 1922 (OCLC locates 2 copies) and 1926 (3 copies).

Similar but different from Scarborough's California Map. Insets of San Francisco, Los Angeles, Sacramento and San Diego.

Shows Steam and electric railway lines in operation, national parks and forests and distances from San Francisco.
