Description:

Fascinating map of the region between Clear Lake and Sacramento, focusing in on several Water Projects then in the planning process.

The Clear Lake Water Company has its roots in the the 1860s, during the earliest attempts to bring water to San Francisco from the Sierra Nevada Mountains.

The Indian Valley Mutual Water Company was formed in the 1930s to appropriate water from North Fork Cache in Lake County and store such water in a damn to be constructed on the River.
