The Great Bahama Bank with its Islands Cays and Channels Surveyed By Commanders
R. Owen and E. Barnett

The islands around Great Harbour Cay and Chub Cay are also shown.

The map would appear to be based upon a British Admiralty chart dated 1844, which focuses on the surveys of the British Royal Navy in the region between 1836 and 1842.

Rarity

OCLC locates only a single example of this edition of Blunt's chart (Boston Public Library).

This is the second state of this sea chart, which was first issued in 1845 (2 locations in OCLC: Princeton University; Bilbliothèque National de France), with later editions issued in 1864 (1 location: British Library).

Detailed Condition:

Blue Backed Sea Chart, with chips at margins and minor toning and soiling.
