Description:

Finely Colored Map of Columbia, etc.

Fine old color example of this important early map of Columbia and Venezuela, from the most important French map maker of the 17th Century.

The map shows the course of the Rio de Paria or Yuyapari or Orinaque River, along with Venezuela's Caribbean Coastline and the islands off shore, including Curacao, Bonaire, Aruba, Margarita and Trinidad and Tobago.

The map also reaches to Manoa or El Dorado on Lake Parime, the famed city of Gold.

Large decorative cartouche. One of the most up to date and important atlas maps of the region during this period.
