Description:

Detailed map of Texas, colored by counties and showing the primitive county configurations in the west. Based upon De Cordova's seminal map. Illustrates many early roads, towns, forts, and other important places. An excellent pre-Civil War map. From the scarce 1859 edition of Colton's atlas, which is the first to include the imprint of Johnson & Browning, one year before these two publishers created their own New Illustrated Family Atlas of the World. Fine attractive color and decorative border.
