Description:

An early John Cary map, related to American Revolution.

Engraved folding map of the northern half of the Atlantic Ocean. The map was published in 1780, during the American Revolution, which is alluded to in the title.

The map is based on a tradition of similar English maps, such as {{ inventory_detail_link('46065','this+one+by+Bowen') }} from almost 30 years earlier.

This is an early map for Cary, who would not start off on his own until 1783.

Detailed Condition:

Some offsetting and toning. Old folds reinforced. Trimmed to platemark on right edge, underneath mounting tab.
