Description:

Fine example of Ernest Dudley's Chase's Pacific Victory Pictorial Map, published in 1944.

Lively pictorial image, illustrating the Theater of War in the Pacific and Eastern Indian Oceans, with a large inset of the area around Japan.

The map is filled with place names in the news, vignettes of ships and clever annotations.

In a biographical pamphlet on Chase published toward the end of World War II, author Tim Thrift, asserts that Chase's battle maps had helped the American public follow the war as it unfolded.
