Description:

Rich full color example of this early map of the Argentine Federation of States.

One of the first separate maps of the newly independent Argentina, which declared its independence from Spain in 1816. The map is surrounded by details on the country, its soil, climate, history, populations, city information, government and a host of other historical and political details.

Carey & Lea's Atlas is highly prized not only for its cartographic information but the marvelous information about each of the states and territories which is included.

The atlas was issued in 6 editions in English, French & German between 1822 and 1827.

Detailed Condition:

Minor discoloration at centerfold
