Description:

A nice example of Nicolas Sanson's 1648 double-page engraved map of Calabria, the Strait of Messina, and northern Sicily.

The map is attractively and simply laid out, and shows substantial detail including many rivers, towns, and coastal features. Relief is shown pictorially.

Sanson is one of the most important 17th-century French cartographic engravers, having published prolifically with cutting-edge knowledge.

Detailed Condition:

Old outline hand-color. Loss of lower right corner, just barely touching the neatline.
