Description:

Two maps on one sheet, featuring two of the major cities in the Southeast prior to the Civil War. The Savannah map shows streets, roads, buildings, stations, rail depots, etc.

It includes a note concerning its founding in 1776 and 18th Century history, along with a Reference key naming 24 places of interest.

The map of Charleston shows streets, roads, buildings, the Washington Race Course, ponds, a military Arsenal and a host of other details.

These are two of the earliest town plans of southern cities to appear in a commercial atlas. JH Colton was one of the pre-eminent American map publishing firms in the mid-19th Century.
