Description:

Remarkable large format map of northwestern Austria by Ludwig Schmidt, including manuscript annotations locating several of the earliest railroad lines, as of 1850.

The map extends from Dillmanning and Burghausen on the Bavaarian border in the west to Pressburg on the Hungarian border in the east. The other surrounding states - Bohemia, Steyermark and Markgraff Hummaehren are indicated but the areas left blank.

As well as the impressive title at top left in German the map has an abbreviated version in French lower right.

Detailed Condition:

Dissected and laid on six sections of linen, as issued., with original slip case.
