Description:

First Edition of the Most Popular Separately Published Map of Oregon of Its Time -- Portland Publisher

Scarce separately issued map of Oregon by J.K. Gill, the leading local seller of books and stationery in Portland at the time.

Gill's maps were frequently updated. This map notes that it was "compiled and drawn by W.H. Galvani Civil Engineer, Portland, Or. This would appear to be the first edition of this map, which was revised periodically for the rest of the decade.

Shows county boundaries, military and Indian reservations, railroads, lighthouses, stage routes, and wagon roads and trails.

Gill's maps of Oregon and Washington are highly prized for their detail and accuracy, being by far the best separately issued maps of these areas available to collectors.
