Description:

Interesting regional map of the Northeast and contiguous parts of Canada, from the January 1746 issue of Gentleman's Magazine.

The map shows in detail the eastern coast of Canada and New England, along with soundings.

The map includes insets of Quebec City, Fort Dauphine, the Atlantic Ocean, and a Plan of City and Port of Louisbourg

The Louisbourg and Quebec insets each contain a key to greater detail.

This chart was based on Bellin's original published in 1744, which was the most influential and widely disseminated sea chart of the region during this period.

Detailed Condition:

Minor marginal soiling.
