Description:

Colton's Large Sectional Map of Arkansas.

Colton's large and attractive 1884 map of Arkansas, one of the largest and most authoritative available at the time.

Shows railroads crossing the state. Counties and towns named. Arkansas borders Indian Territory.

Large, early maps of Arkansas are seldom encountered.

The Colton "New Sectional" maps are quite rare no matter their subject; we have handled only a few others (Illinois, Kansas, Minnesota, Michigan, and Florida). They deserve to be prized, as they are among the most detailed and authoritative map series for the post-Civil War United States.

Detailed Condition:
