Description:

Silicon Valley in its Infancy

Decorative pictorial map of Silicon Valley in 1983 with Stanford at the left side (where in 1968, the first heart brain transplant took place).

The map is filled with advertising for computer and other companies in the Valley, includes Apple Computers, with a cute vignette above their logo and corporate headquarters, stated "You must be a smart terminal."

Other companies of note include:

- Oracle
- Symantec
- Abacus
- Kyocera
- Tandem
- ASK
- A note that Gary Dahl became a Millionaire selling pet rocks.
- Hewlett Packard
- NEC
- Control Data
