Description:

An Important Early Map of Picardy

Rare example of Francois Bouguereau's map of Picardy region of France, published in Tours, from his Le Theater Francoys.

The map is centered on the Somme River, extending from its source near Vermandois to the sea.

The map was engraved by Gabriel Tavernier, with his initials (GT) in the lower center of the cartouche.

Picardy part of Hauts-de-France, is an historical region of northern France, stretching north from the suburbs of Paris and vineyards of Champagne to the beaches of the Bay of Somme on the English Channel. The regional capital is Amiens.
