Description:

Fine large format map of the routes of the Union Pacific Railroad, published in May 1885 by Rand McNally & Company.

The map is colored by counties and locates rail lines, stations and other details. The wide black lines locate the lines of the Union Pacific, with the thinner back lines locating other lines.

Some of the lines reach the major mining towns of the West, including Virginia City (Montana), Helena, Virginia City, Ormsby and Dayton (Nevada), Frisco (Utah), Silver City (Utah), Park City (Utah), Gunnison, Silverton, Durango, Del Norte, Leadville (Colorado), etc.

A fine large map, quite rare on the market.

Detailed Condition:

Folding map with time tables and promotional text on the verso.
