Barry Lawrence Ruderman
Antique Maps Inc.

7407 La Jolla Boulevard
La Jolla, CA 92037

www.raremaps.com

(858) 551-8500
blr@raremaps.com

Stations of the God's-Eye Pilgrimage Places in the Haight

Stock#: 55154
Map Maker: Rolling Stone Magazine

Date: 1976
Place:
Color: Color
Condition: VG+
Size: 21.25 x 12.5 inches

Price: SOLD

Description:

Haight-Ashbury in 1976

Detailed map of Haight-Ashbury, which was issued with the February 26, 1976 edition of Rolling Stone Magazine.

The map celebrates decade following the summer of Summer of Love, where the Haight has already become a place of "pilgrimage". Complimenting an article that follows up on the characters of the area, this double page map shows the key spots from the Diggers store, to Janis Joplin's apartment (112 Lyon St. #27) and the Grateful Dead House (710 Ashland St.).

A number of interesting photographs illustrate points on the map. Places shown include:

1. Hippie Hill: the public forum, picnicking spot and primal social setting of the neighborhood.
2. The Diggers' Free Frame of Reference and Free Store
3. The Radha-Krishna Temple
4. Far-Fetched Foods, also known as Blind Jerry's: the first health food store in the Haight
5. Mouse Studios/Pacific Ocean Trading Co.: poster gallery
6. The I-Thou coffee shop
7. Quasar's Ice Cream
8. The Trip without a Ticket: a later incarnation of the Free frame of Reference
9. The Hip Job Co-Op: job referrals
10. The Straight Theater: a movie theater converted to dance hall
11. 42 Belvedere, where Rudolf Nureyev and Margot Fonteyn were busted
12. The Shire School: tuition-free Summerhill-inspired primary school
13. The Haight-Ashbury Free Medical Clinic (located at Happening House)

Barry Lawrence Ruderman
Antique Maps Inc.

7407 La Jolla Boulevard
La Jolla, CA 92037

www.raremaps.com

(858) 551-8500
blr@raremaps.com

Stations of the God's-Eye Pilgrimage Places in the Haight

14. Tracy's Donuts: popular gathering place because of its late hours
15. The Pall Mall Cocktail Lounge: started serving "Love Burgers"
16. The Print Mint: a poster gallery started after the tenant, a Berkeley book dealer, was denied a license to sell used books in the Haight
17. The Psychedelic Shop: books, records, paraphernalia, meditation room
18. Mnasidika: first hip shop on Haight Street
19. The Blue Unicorn: first coffee house in the neighborhood, opened 1963
20. 710 Ashbury, the Grateful Dead house
21. The Blushing Peony (also, at various times, Skinnidippin, Middle
22. All Saints Episcopal Church: lent its facilities to the Diggers over the objection of parishioners
23. The Panhandle: scene of free rock concerts and Diggers' free feeds
24. The Drogstore Cafe
25. The Phoenix: paraphernalia shop--pipes, papers, incense, Indian goods. The offices of the "Oracle" were upstairs
26. 112 Lyon: Janis Joplin's apartment
27. 1360 Fell, Allen Ginsberg's sometime residence
28. Huckleberry's for Runaways: housing and counseling for runaway minors
29. The Albin place, 1090 Page: birthplace of Big Brother and the Holding Company
30. The Tape Music Center: Charlatans' rehearsal hall, Bill Ham's light show performances, Anna Halprin Dance Troupe, electronic music performances, SF studio of Berkeley radio station KPFA-FM
31. Magic Theater for Madmen Only: primordial hippie boutique

Detailed Condition: