Description:

Fine example of the Valk & Schenk edition of Jansson's map of Hunan (Huquang), Jiangxi (Kiangsi), Zhejiang (Che Kiang), and Fujian (Fokien) in eastern China.

The map is drawn largely from Blaeu's maps compiled by Jesuit Father Martino Martini who traveled through the region between 1643 and 1650.

A legend at bottom right identifies cities and towns of various sizes, forts, and mines for gold, silver, tin, and iron. Shanghai is named Sungkiang.

The title cartouche is flanked by Chinese men and the scale of miles cartouche is surrounded by putti.
