Petrov settled in Greece in 1882 and devoted the rest of his life to historical studies. He published his idiosyncratic "Ατλας Τον υπερ Ανεξαρτησιας Ιερο Των Ελληνων Αγωνος" in 1886.

The maps give details of the roles of the various islands and areas of Greece during the Greek War of Independence. Some islands are identified as traitors and removed from their island groups and illustrated separately.
